RMA Analyst/Projects

About the role

Mana Ahuriri is looking for an organised and energetic whānau to be part of our Taiao Team. This role will help grow Mana Ahuriri's responses to all things involved in Te Taiao, therefore it is preferable to have knowledge of the Resource Management Act 1991 (RMA), experience in the resource management consent process and an understanding of Mātauranga Māori and Te Taiao. This whānau must be able to utilise their analytical and logistical talent to support the Pou Taiao and Te Taiao Komiti for the benefit of Mana Ahuriri.

This is a new position to help Mana Ahuriri grow its obligations and responsiveness within Te Taiao. The role will work close with whanau and hapū as well as our Treaty partners and those people involved in mana whenua engagement.

Some key activities you will be involved in, include:

- Analyse, review, and undertake works relating to resource management consents, plans, and processes, ensure that our settlement is protected, and our Taiao Management Plan objectives are upheld.
- Manage and/or contribute to initiatives and projects related to the environmental wellbeing of our whenua, awa, and moana and those living creatures within.
- Build relationships with stakeholders to enhance the environmental wellbeing of the Takiwa of nga hapū o Ahuriri.
- Manage and/or participate in projects that support the Taiao Management Plan
- Input into the communications and reporting on all Taiao matter.
- Collaborating with the team and wider networks to plan and develop new and innovative ways to engage and interact with our whanau.
- Manage, support and/or participate in Mana Ahuriri initiatives and Events as required.

About you

- Is committed to Te Tiriti, Tikanga, Kawa and Te Reo.
- Understanding of the economic, social and cultural issues facing Māori and Mana Ahuriri and committed to realising Mana Ahuriri's aspirations in these spaces.
- The ability to lead and be part of projects; and develop strong relationships with Te Tiriti partners and across a wide range of stakeholders.
- A tertiary qualification and experience in the RMA field or a related field such as Public Policy or a similar discipline
- The ability to interact effectively with Te Ao Māori and mainstream community.

- A current Drivers licence
- Experience in Microsoft Office 365

This is a full time position in a 2 year fixed term arrangement.

To apply please send CV and cover letter detailing what you would bring to the role.
